- B. Nagib on decline physically and prestige-wise.
- C. Rise of Nasr poses a new problems of military dictatorship.

Revolutionary Council not really popular.
- D. If Nas absolutely firmly established in power, intelligence reports indicate he will make great effort to settle Suez issue.
- E. Absolute power also would restore control of terrorism and permit Britain to approach conference table.
- F. Latest British proposals, if presented with some give and take, could probably be accepted and sold to Egyptian people as unconditional evacuation.
- G. Only after that can approach be made to deep economic problems.
